

Bio for Garrett Mayfield, Percussion Private Lesson Teacher & Front Ensemble Tech

Garrett Mayfield is a percussionist, educator, and arranger from Central Texas. As a performer Garrett was a member of various world class ensembles including Crossmen Drum & Bugle Corps and Bluecoats Drum & Bugle Corps. In the midst of pursuing a degree in Music Education from Texas State University, Garrett has instructed many prestigious High School programs in Central Texas including Cedar Ridge High School receiving First Place at the Dripping Springs Drumline Contest, as well as Grand Champion and Best Front Ensemble at the Lonestar Drumline Contest in 2016. Garrett also served as the Front Ensemble Coordinator for WGI Independent Ensemble European X while in The Netherlands traveling back to the United States for their first appearance at the WGI World Championships. Currently Garrett resides in San Marcos, Texas while attending Texas State University.